DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. In view of applicant's amendment filed 24 March 2005, rejections under 35 U.S.C. § 101, are withdrawn. The Applicant has successfully amended the claims to include statutory subject matter, the claims leading to a clear and tangible result.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, see pages 8 and 9, filed 24 March 2005, with respect to independent claims 1 and 28 have been fully considered and are persuasive. As stated above, the rejection of these claims has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-33 are allowed over the Prior Art of record.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reasons for allowance of claim 1 is the inclusion of the limitations of a method of monitoring a kiln used for drying wood including obtaining a good set of samples of preliminary moisture content data, the data obtained from the measurement of moisture content data from wood dried in the kiln, creating a statistical model which demonstrates the behavior (i.e. operation) of the kiln by estimating three parameters of a Lognormal distribution which approximates the known good data set, the three parameters including a threshold parameter, a shape parameter and a scale parameter. As to claim 28, the primary reasons for allowance is the inclusion of the limitations of a computer readable medium containing the instructions that when executed by a computer, cause the computer to perform the method of monitoring a kiln used for drying wood, including the method steps (i.e. program steps) recited above in claim 1. The Prior Art is completely devoid of any teachings of methods of monitoring a wood drying kiln's performance/behavior employing a Lognormal distribution (or any distribution).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
